Day 1: Alt Empordà – Parasailing

Arrival at the hotel to check-in and enjoy the sun and the beaches of this beautiful environment. At sunset, we will do parasailing, a magnificent adventure activity that combines wonderful views with extreme sensations that will captivate you. At 150 meters above sea level, you will fly at full speed and have a bird's eye view panoramic. Free dinner and accommodation at the hotel.

Day 2: Alt Empordà – electric bicycle route

Breakfast at the hotel. Free day to enjoy the sun and the beaches of this beautiful environment. In the afternoon, we will go out for a self-guided tour with an electric bicycle through Peratallada domain (3-4 hours). The route runs through the towns of Peralta, where we can enjoy the public fountain, the Church of Santa Susanna and the remains of the Peralta Castle; we will go up towards Les Gavarres massif, where we will discover La Carbonera, and we will go down el Fitor path towards Fonteta. We visit Fonteta, the fountain for which it is named after and the Church of Santa Maria de Fonteta, with origins in the medieval period. Next, we will go to Vulpellac. The set preserves a good part of the characteristics of the Catalan medieval quarters. From Vulpellac we go to Canapost and here we return to the town of Peratallada, where we will find a good gastronomic offer to stay for dinner. Then, accommodation at the hotel.

Day 3: Alt Empordà – diving

Breakfast at the hotel and departure to the diving centre to live a unique experience. In the company of an instructor, you can dive to a maximum depth of 6 meters. You will also enjoy the journey with our boat loving such spectacular views, both on and off the water. On your return you can stay and discuss the experience on the terrace while eating at the bar / restaurant in the same centre. In the afternoon, you can get delighted in any of the magical towns and places that the environment offers you. Free dinner and accommodation at the hotel (we offer the possibility that if any of the companions does not want to go diving, they can go with the boat and snorkel, a discount of €35).

Day 4: Alt Empordà – kayak

Breakfast at the hotel. Morning to enjoy the sun, the beach or visit one of the wonderful towns of l'Empordà. In the early afternoon, departure by kayak for a journey of about three hours that allows us to go from Tamariu beach to Gispert cave, which, with more than 150m depth, is the most spectacular of all the caves along Costa Brava. On the way, we will pass through places of great beauty such as Aigua Xelida, Pas de Llebre, Cala Llarga, Cala Marquesa and Cova de la Gavina. At the end, free dinner and accommodation at the hotel.

Día 5: Alt Empordà - Origen

Breakfast at the hotel and check-out. Today in the morning we will go to l'Escala, where we will take a boat for a tour along Costa del Montgrí, observing its wonderful caves and coves, among others the Cova del Contraban, Punta Montgó - with its 16th century tower -, Cala Farriol, until reaching the natural tunnel of La Foradada. On the way back, we will make a stop to take a bath in one of these coves from the boat itself. It has stairs and a platform to access the sea. Return to the L'Escala's harbour and end of our services.
